Home for the Holidays – December 4th 10-2pm:

PTK will be providing the opportunity for children to take their pictures with Santa. Will, Anthony, Shelley and Daphne volunteered to be assistants for this event as well as others that have contacted Ashley Leslie.

We will also have a table set up to sell artwork by Dr. Cavan and raffle an afghan made by Mrs. Cavan. All proceeds will be given to St. Jude Hospital. Steven volunteered to be available at the table to sell raffle tickets and/or artwork. Crystal P. plans to pick up a few raffle tickets to sell this week. All tickets will be brought back to SVCC no later than Friday.

Book Drive – December 3-4th:

Prince Edward Library is holding a book drive on Friday/Saturday December 3-4th. PTK members have been asked to provide assistance with preparing for the book drive and packing up the books when they are finished. Once PTK takes ownership of the books, we will sell and/or donate the goods. After the last book drive was completed PTK received $100.00 from selling the books. Crystal P. volunteered to assist with the book drive. She plans to help out on Friday as well as pick up the books after the drive is completed on Saturday. Books will be brought to SVCC on Monday morning. Others have volunteered and let Ashley Leslie know.

Five Star Development Plan:

Members reviewed the options to complete a Five Star Development Plan. It was decided that our chapter would work towards three stars. There were ten topics to choose from which our project must be based on. The group chose to move forward with completing a project on Technology, more specifically: How online gaming has influenced them (survey takers). At this time, we are planning to conduct a survey to collect the project data. We will continue working on how to implement the project at our next meeting. Everyone seemed satisfied that a topic had finally been chosen.

Will request that our chapter meetings be moved to a different time or day next semester due to the fact he had a scheduling conflict. The group agreed to start meeting on Thursdays next semester. We will attempt to continue meeting at noon however; the location may have to be changed. Our next chapter meeting will be held on January 13, 2011 at 12pm.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
